

Resident benefits

- Provides access to high quality specialists using telehealth
- Reduces need for inconvenient travel
- Supports ongoing relationship with a geriatrician
- Provides customised care by a team of specialists, GPs and RACF staff.

GP benefits

- Permits easy access to a geriatrician and future specialist panel
- Shares responsibility for resident care
- Simplifies program of geriatric care without negatively impacting on billing capacity
- Maintains clinical relationship with the patient
- Supports skill acquisition and specialisation in the geriatric field
- Reduces requirement for heavy visitation schedule.

Geriatrician benefits

- Remuneration at least equivalent to other practice environments
- Case load includes an average of one comprehensive assessment per week
- State-of-the-art virtual clinic with video conferencing solutions with a proven capacity to host clinical consultations
- Part of a research program improving aged care services.

RACF benefits

- Access to high quality specialists
- Participation in a collaborative care network
- Use of purpose designed online clinical software and support tools
- Access to a system of care based on comprehensive geriatric assessments
- Establishment of strong clinical relationships with health professionals
- Enhancement of ACFI processes
- Reduction in transportation and supervisory costs associated with off-site consultations
- Provision of structured care planning
- Recognition as a supplier of high level specialist care.

Contact Us

RES-e-CARE

Phone: +61 7 3176 5530

Email: enquiries@resecare.com.au

Web: www.resecare.com.au

Bringing Telehealth to Residential Aged Care Facilities

1834

